

Your old computer can change lives

Color of the Rainbow Organization received 1 desktop computer and 1 monitor to help their daily activities.

This organization dedicated to strengthening Latino families through programs that empower them to thrive and enjoy a healthy family environment.

Jason Conyers was awarded with a laptop to help with his school work. He is part of the Communities in Schools of Marietta/Cobb County program that support, empowering them to stay in school and achieve in life.

Grace Taylor was awarded with a laptop to help with her school work. He is part of the Communities in Schools of Marietta/Cobb County program that support, empowering them to stay in school and achieve in life.

Malik Thomas received a laptop through Communities in Schools of Marietta/Cobb County partnership. All assignments are completed timely.

Dashawn Miller is a 7th grader. He received a laptop to access to a computer to complete all assignments at home that are not completed in class. He is part of the Communities in Schools of Marietta/Cobb County program

Between Los Niños Primeros Foundation and Community Foundation develop a training class for parents. This program allow parents to learn the basic knowledge of computer

